ACTIVITIES, NEWS & EVENTS

Kevin the Caring Barber

We were delighted to welcome back Kevin the Caring Barber, who is always a huge hit with our gentlemen. Kevin brings more than just a haircut, he plays old classics that encourage singing along and reminiscing, creating a relaxed and cheerful atmosphere. He truly goes above and beyond, even visiting some residents in their bedrooms to make sure everyone feels well-groomed and cared for.

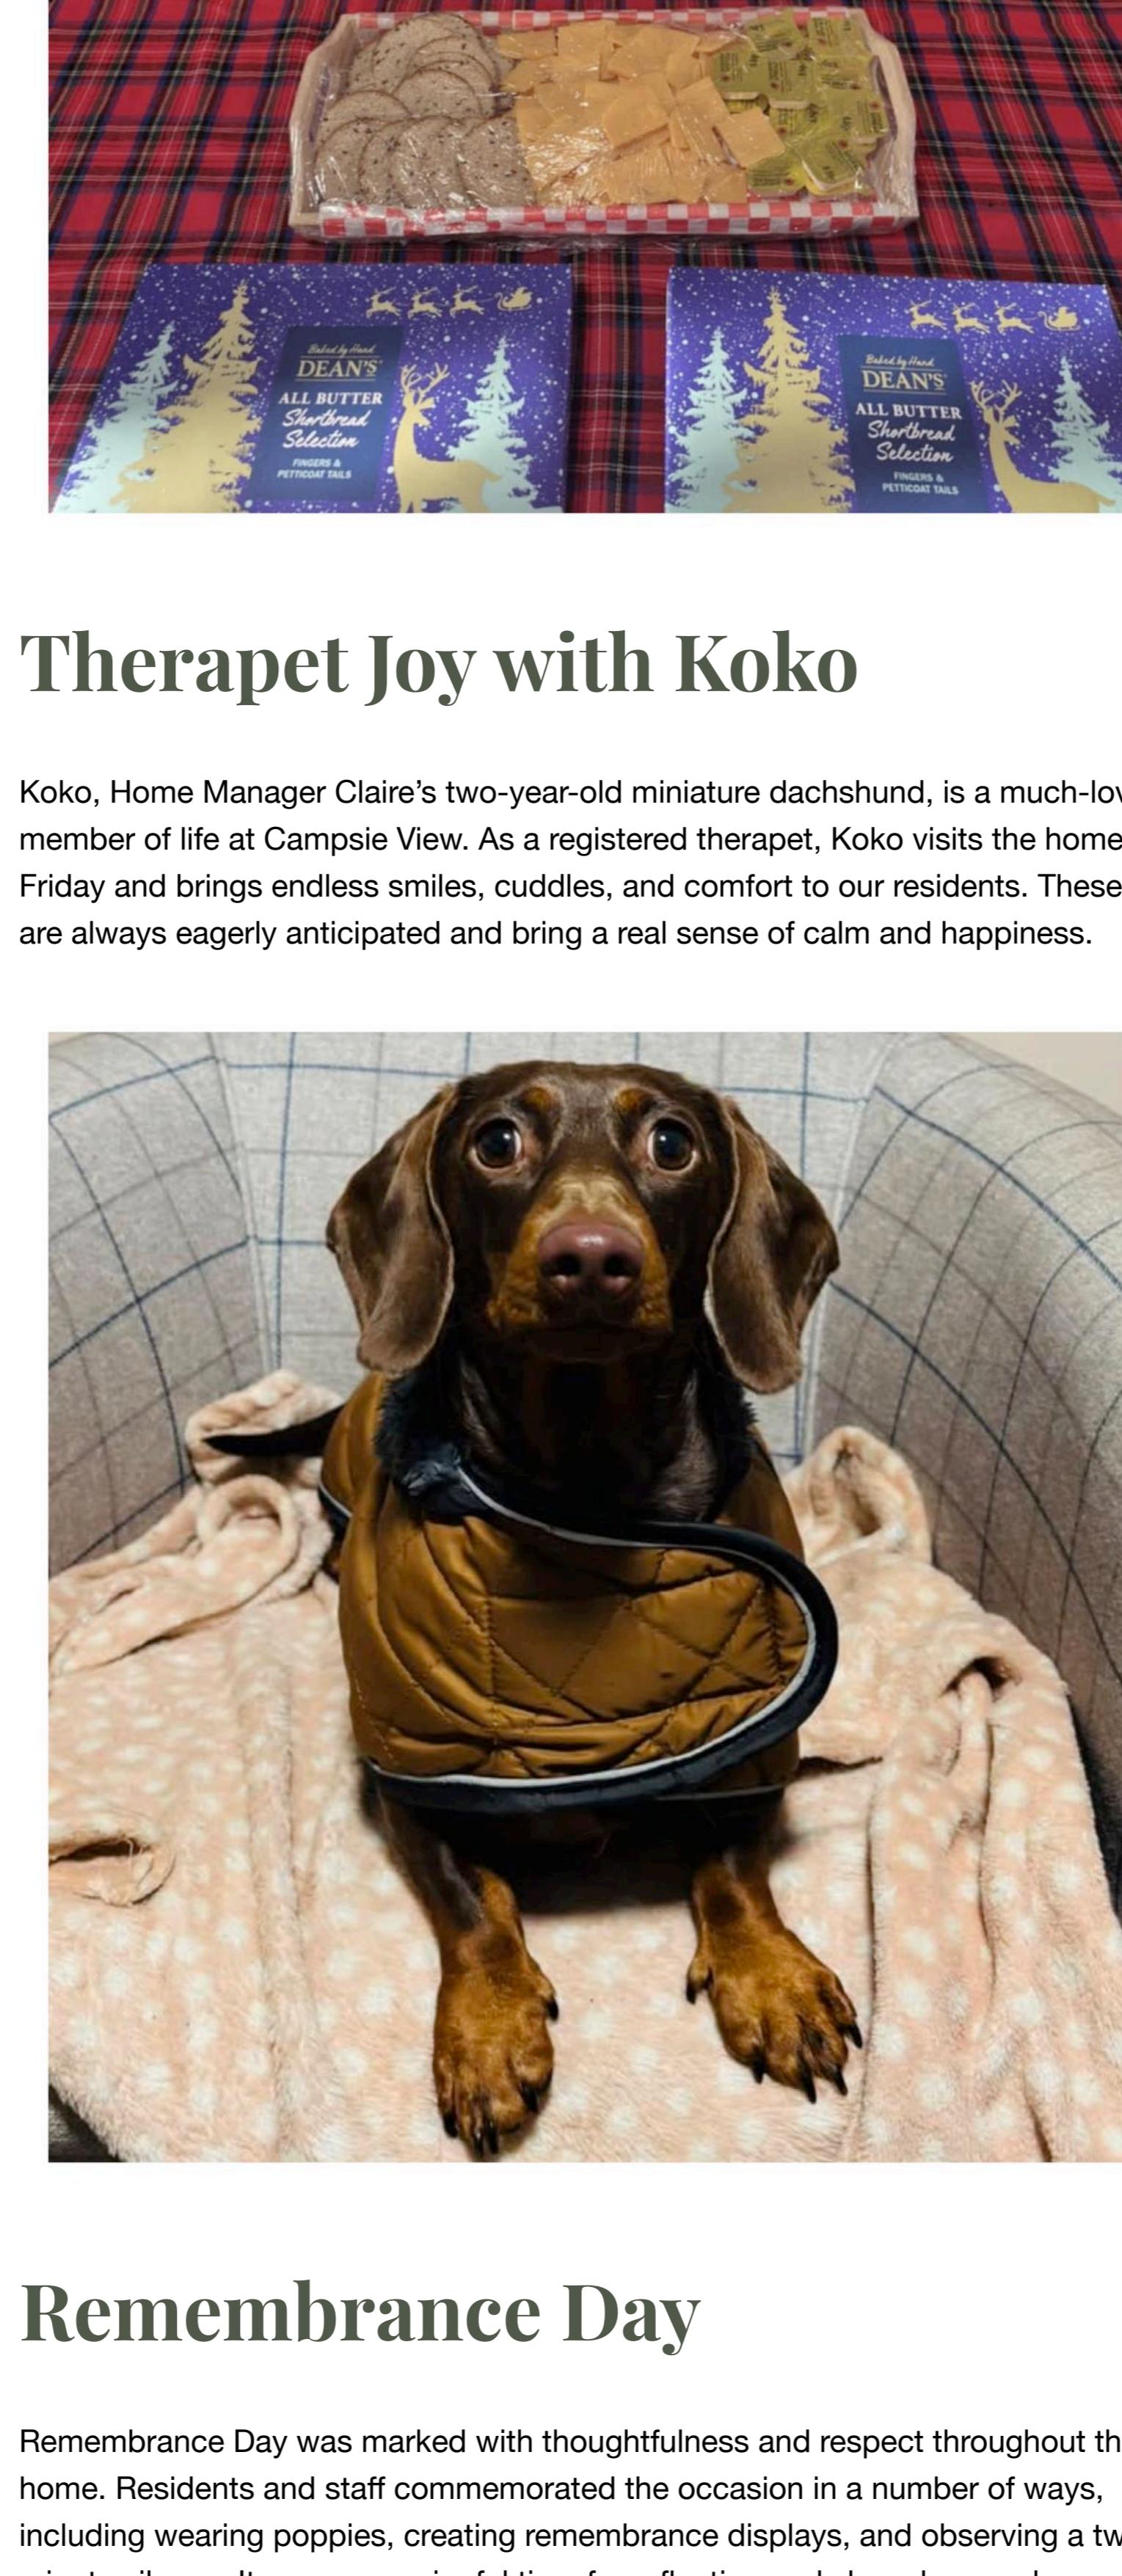

Burns Day Celebrations

Our Burns Day celebrations were a wonderful blend of creativity and tradition. Residents worked together on a Burns-themed art project, which was proudly displayed for everyone to enjoy. We marked the life of our National Bard, Robert Burns, in true Scottish style—with haggis, neeps and tatties, along with plenty of other Scottish delights. It was a day filled with pride, conversation, and celebration.

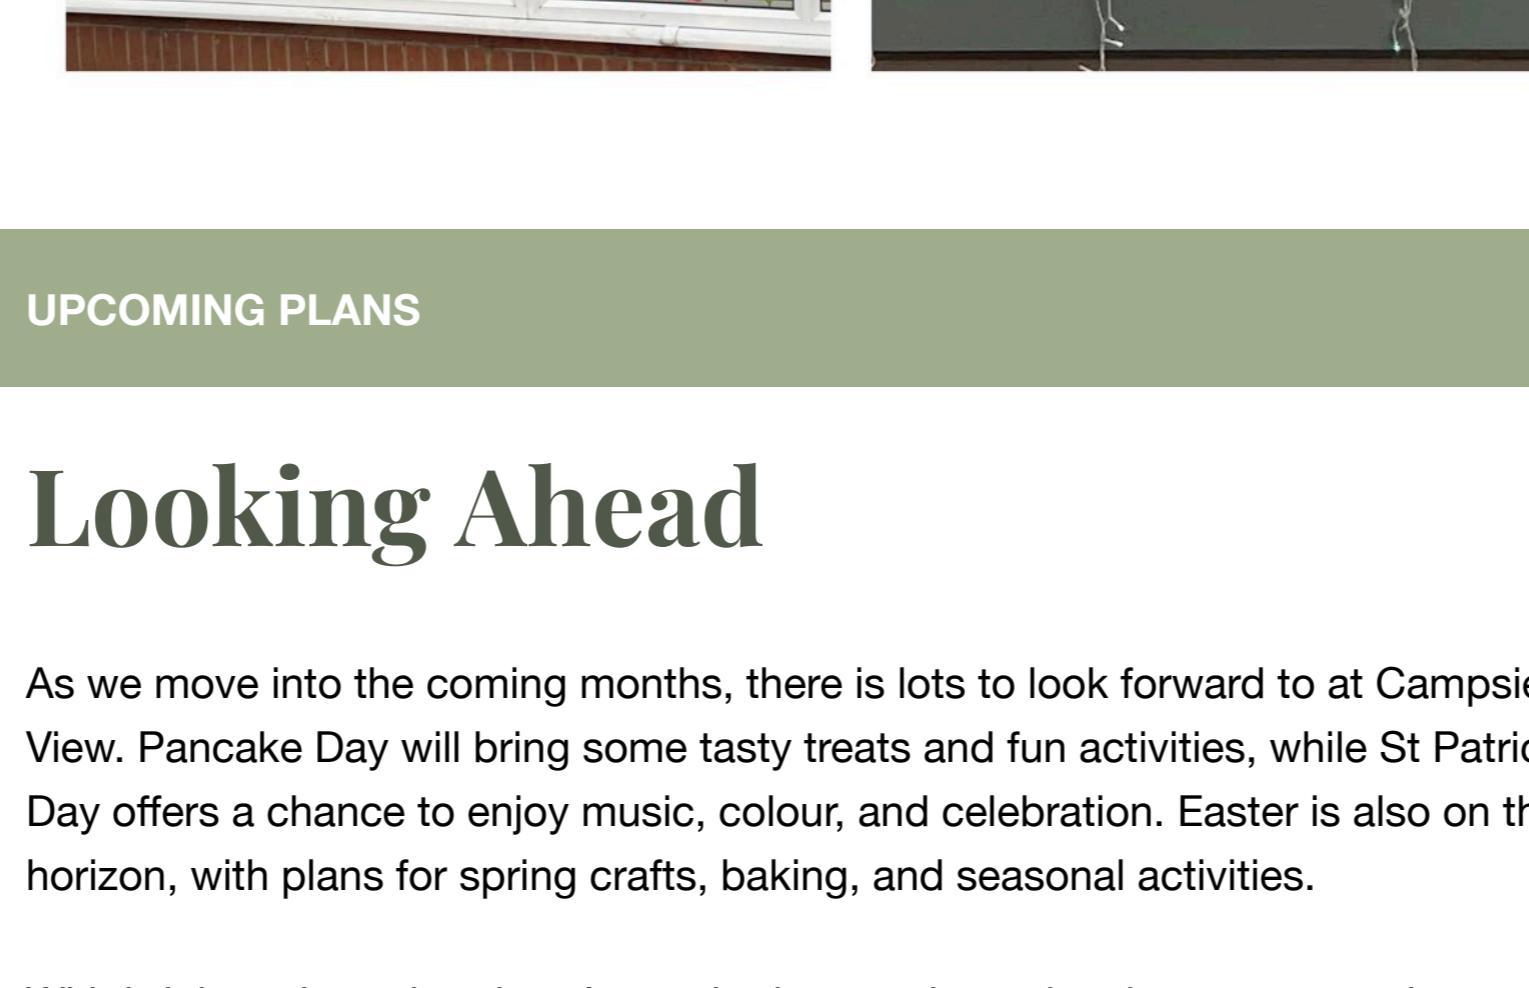

Christmas & New Year

Christmas and New Year were celebrated in style here at Campsie View. Residents enjoyed delicious festive meals, plenty of entertainment, visits from friends and family, and of course, gifts. The home was full of warmth, music, and festive cheer as we welcomed the season together.

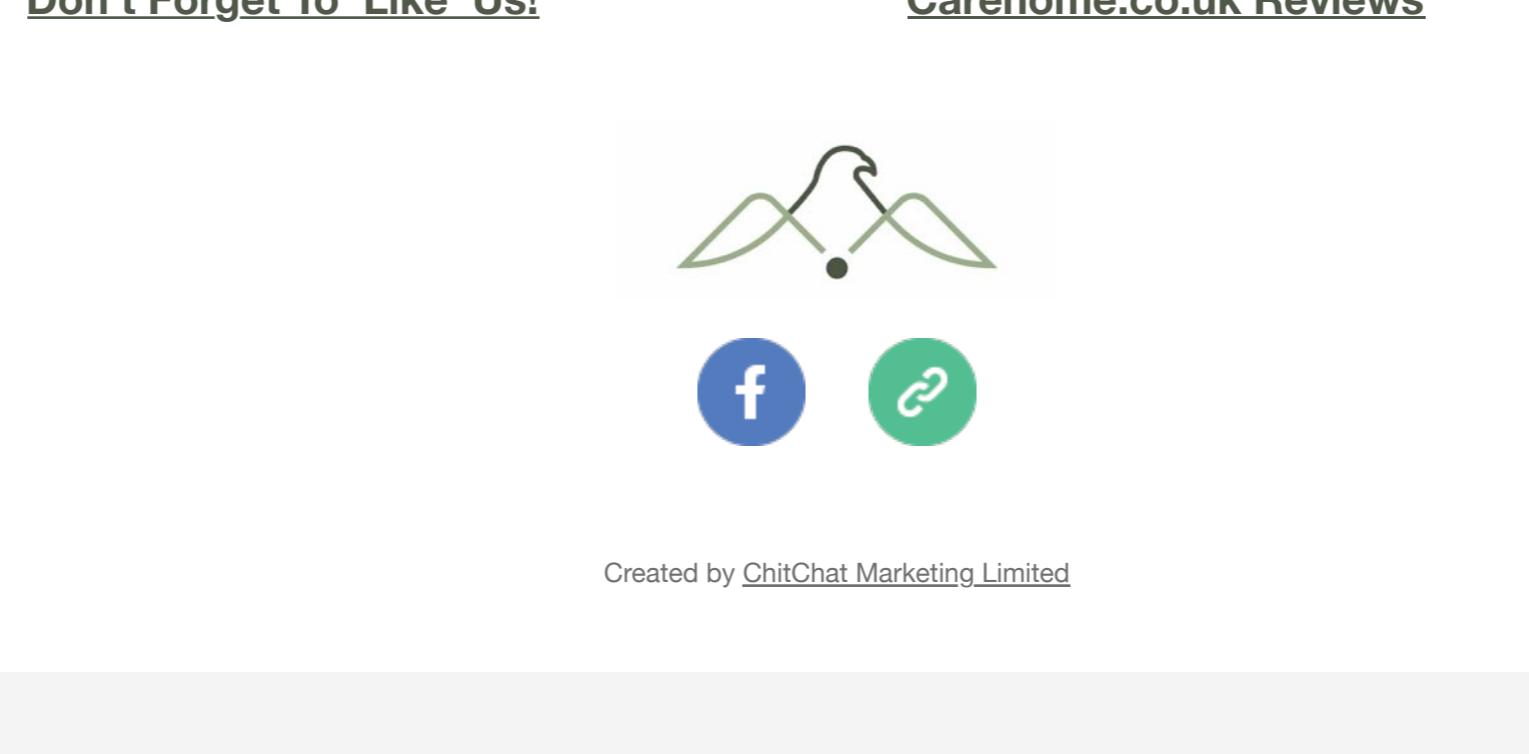

Golden Oldies Afternoon

We were kindly invited to attend a Golden Oldies charity afternoon at Haystons Golf Club, and what a fantastic outing it was. Santa made a surprise visit, the food was fabulous, and the entertainment had everyone dancing and smiling. We even managed to win a couple of raffle prizes! It was a truly enjoyable afternoon of good company, music, and laughter.

St Andrew's Day

We couldn't let St Andrew's Day pass without celebrating. Residents enjoyed traditional Scottish treats and took part in a fun Scottish quiz, sparking friendly competition and plenty of conversation.

Upcoming Plans

Looking Ahead

As we move into the coming months, there is lots to look forward to at Campsie View. Pancake Day will bring music, colour, treats and fun activities. Easter, while also on the horizon, with plans for spring crafts, baking, and seasonal activities. With brighter days ahead, we're excited to continue planning events, outings, and sharing many more special moments together. We look forward to many more happy memories together.
